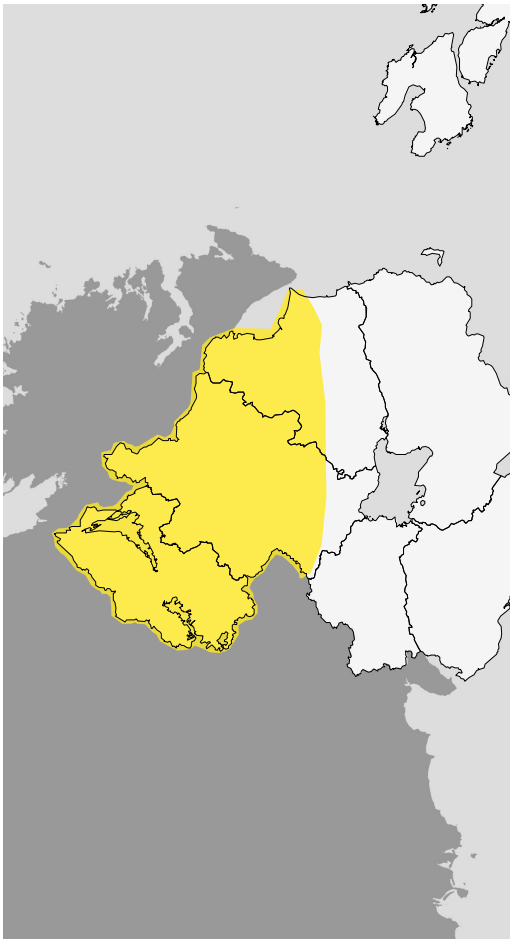
Yellow warning
Thunderstorm

Between
14:00 Sat 17 Jun 2023 and
21:00 Sat 17 Jun 2023



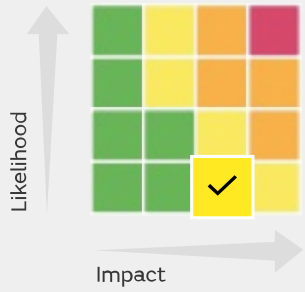
Some places missing them, but scattered thunderstorms may cause flooding and disruption on Saturday afternoon and evening

What to expect

- Spray and sudden flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some temporary road closures
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded quickly, with damage to some buildings from floodwater, lightning strikes, hail or strong winds
- Where flooding or lightning strikes occur, there is a chance of delays and some cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a slight chance that power cuts could occur and other services to some homes and businesses could be lost

Further details

After morning rain has cleared, further heavy showers and thunderstorms are expected to develop during Saturday afternoon across Northern Ireland, focused across western areas. While some places miss these, a few spots may see 30 mm in around an hour and perhaps 50 mm in 2-3 hours. Additionally, some thunderstorms may produce frequent lightning and hail up to 2 cm in diameter.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
